

REDEMPTION

with Kyle Jackson, Pastor of Church of the Highlands | Columbus, GA Campus

▶ FOCUS VERSE

My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

2 Corinthians 12: 9-10

▶ DISCUSSION

- 1. Kyle states that the world says vulnerability is a weakness, but he thinks it is really a strength. What do you think? Explain.
- 2. The Redeemed was created to provide a safe space for people to be real and open up about their insecurities.
 - a. What is your safe space?
 - b. Who do you feel most comfortable being 100% your true self?
 - c. What factors make you feel comfortable opening up to that person?
 - d. Are you providing a safe space for others?
- 3. Kyle says, "If you can figure out a way to use your past, you can walk not only a life that's been redeemed, but a life that has purpose for other people."
Can you think of a time when you have used your past sins for a purpose?
- 4. Kyle stated "We are created on purpose, for a purpose."
Our purpose isn't just to work, to make money, to provide for our family. God created us to tie it back to a kingdom purpose.
How has God created you? What are your unique talents?

Not sure? Consider taking a spiritual gifts assessment test
(<https://gifts.churchgrowth.org/spiritual-gifts-survey/gifts-survey/>)
How are you using your God given talents for a kingdom purpose?

Find this podcast at theredeemed.com/kyle-jackson-webinar/