

A MILESTONE FOR THE REDEEMED MAN

with Paul Amos and Nate Dewberry

▶ FOCUS VERSE

Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.
Philippians 1:6

▶ DISCUSSION

1. How did you first become acquainted with The Redeemed and/or the podcast series?
 - a. What made you decide to stay connected/involved?

2. Early in this episode, Paul talks about how COVID nearly derailed his plans for The Redeemed before it got started, but the podcast (and social media) helped keep it alive even when people couldn't meet in person.
 - a. Think about where you were in the spring of 2020 and how COVID changed your life. Did you have any big plans or projects that the pandemic ended or threw into chaos?

 - b. How did you adapt or “pivot” in the face of this disruption?

 - c. What did you learn from the experience?

 - d. Were there any benefits that you might not have gained if the pandemic hadn't happened?

Find this podcast at theredeemed.com/100th-episode/

3. What are some of your favorite episodes or guests?

- a. What about those guests or their stories made such a lasting impression on you?
- b. Did you gain anything from those episodes that prompted you to make any changes in your own life?

4. At one point, Paul says, “The older I get, the more I realize I don’t know.”

- a. Did that observation resonate with you at all?
- b. Has it been difficult to accept the things you didn’t know or had incorrect views of, or have you embraced those learning opportunities?

5. Have you shared your own story with an in-person or online small group yet?

- a. If not, what are some of the things that are still holding you back?
- b. If so, what happened that made you feel accepted or trusting enough to open up to others?

